The Companies Act, 2013 has made it mandatory for companies to be socially responsible by introducing the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) regime. The Ministry of Corporate Affairs (MCA) has issued the CSR Rules, 2014 to implement this legislative mandate, which came into effect on 1st April, 2015. The new rules stipulate that at least 2% of average net profits in three immediate preceding financial years must be spent annually on CSR. This applies to companies with net worth of Rs. 500 crores or turnover of Rs. 1000 crores or net profit of Rs. 5 crores or above.

The seminar aims to provide a platform for the participants to exchange ideas, knowledge, and experiences on various aspects of CSR, including its implementation, challenges, and best practices. The seminar will also provide an opportunity for networking and collaboration among professionals and researchers in the field.
